KAMSIEN BEATEN BY McHUGH.

There was a race at Sheffield yesterday which had a very ugly look. It was the fourth for three year olds at three-quarters of a mile, and Kamsin was naturally a top heavy favorite, his principal opponents being Nikita and May Galop. T. McHugh, who rode the colt in the Derby, was on the son of Blazes, and he rode him a villainous race. On the back stretch Kamsin was pocketed and pulled round to the outside. Then he was taken wide on the turns. When he came to the stretch, though not with the lead, McHugh pulled Kamsin to the outside, losing several lengths. As a consequence, Nikita beat him handily, and he just managed to beat May Galop for the place. When called into the stand and questioned by Judge Kuhl, who was presiding in the absence of Judge Nathanson, the boy said he had ridden to orders. Louis Ezell, the owner, confirmed the boy's statement. The judge considered the instructions peculiar, and evidently blamed the boy for following them out so closely under the circumstances, as he suspended him indefinitely.

The day was cloudy and the track heavy, but the racing, with the exception of Kamsin's, up to form. Four favorites' and two second choices won. In the first event Sugar, who has shown a disposition to stop, managed to beat the favorite Waterman, though the latter would have won, if he had got off well. Tully Coulter's good looking Bramble filly, Chenille, had it all her own way in the two-year-old race, and Marie Woodlands had no trouble in winning the third event.

The mile and twenty yards was simply a gallop for Eloroy, Little Matt beating Prince for the place, though the latter was backed.

In the six and a half furlongs California led from start to finish, with old Dago as the runner up.

ST. LOUIS CASE IN THE COURT.

St. Louis, Mo., May 18.—The injunction suit of Alex Ullman against the Fair Association to prevent the latter from interfering with his control of the ring, was argued in Judge Flittercraft's court to-day, and the judge took the matter under advisement. If Ullman wins, the Association will probably retaliate by charging an exorbitant price at the gate. This would leave the betting ring to Ullman.

THURSDAY'S OAKLEY DERBY.

The Oakley Derby, $12,500 guaranteed, is to be decided Thursday. Ben Brush's victory Saturday gives him a five pound penalty. There are forty eligibles. Of the lot there are six likely to start and worth consideration. They and their weights are:

Ben Brush.....127 Ben Eder.....122
Semper Ego.....197 Prince Lief.....117
Nimrod.....117 Loki.....117

There seems to be nothing to the Oakley Derby but the Dwyer pair. Ben Eder can win the race and as its capture would give Ben Brush a penalty for the $20,000 St. Louis Derby, he will if Mr. Dwyer so considers, be sent for the prize
